Teenage Girls Competition Wrap Up - Week 1

The Townsville and District Rugby Union's Teenage Girls Competition kicked off last Friday. An action-packed night, saw girls from across the district take the field. For some it was their first taste of Rugby Union, with all enjoying the night.

School and club teams in both the under 15s and under 17s grades, battled it out at Mike Carney Toyota Park. A great atmosphere emerged as the girls showed the crowd what rugby skill that had learned over the past few weeks. Crunching tackles, strong runs and spectacular tries were all on show.

This week we will see games played at Charters Towers and Warrina Park. Charters Towers will take on Brothers at home, in both grades. While over a Warrina Park North Ward, Western Suburbs and Thuringowa State High School will battle it out.

Check out the link below for game times:
